CLASS ID: 5862

- ★ No prior experience needed
- ★ Open to ALL grade levels
- ★ Helps English skills
- ★ Get involved on campus

“I feel safe welcomed in this environment and I look forward to it every day.”

-Kirra Yee

“I love journalism because you get the chance to surround yourself with current events from school and the community.”

-Rena Keyes

“Being able to passionately write about things that matter on this campus has allowed me to view different perspectives while also improving my writing overall.”

-Izzy Green

“This course has allowed me to exercise my passion for writing and to grow as a writer.”

-Noelle Doblado

“I have had the opportunity to really learn how to write articles and how to interview people, everything I want to do in the future.”

-Alexandra Schueller

“I learned to harness my voice and tell the stories on our campus that often go untold. I would highly recommend joining journalism to any student interested in using their voice for the purpose of building a community that is both more informed and connected.”

-Evee Pettingill

“I feel that each day I learn something new and feel more connected to journalism. If you have any interest in any type of writing or journalism take this class. It's a great space to express yourself and be a voice for others!”

-Kasi Khathuria

“I've learned about the News Values and how to better communicate with my peers. I would definitely recommend this class because of how enjoyable it is overall.”

-Erin Jackson

Student Testimonial Kirra Yee - writer

Student Testimonial Ella Tackett - writer

My name is Ella Tackett, I am a 17-year-old student at the University of York. I have been a member of the York University Student Union for the past two years. I have been involved in many activities during my time at York, including being a member of the Student Union Executive, a member of the Student Union Council, and a member of the Student Union Committee. I have also been involved in many other activities, including being a member of the Student Union's social media team, a member of the Student Union's fundraising team, and a member of the Student Union's sports team. I have been very proud to be a part of the Student Union and to have been involved in so many activities. I have learned a lot from my time at York and I am grateful for the experience. I hope to continue to be involved in the Student Union in the future.
