Yearbook Information About Ads

Recognition ads, aka “senior send offs”

- Your parents will have information from “The Yearbook Company” regarding these “Ads for Grads” in your mailbox very soon What is that all about?
- This is entirely different from the regular Senior Section in the yearbook.
- Placing a dedication is entirely optional.
- Wouldn't it be great if you could tell your child how proud you are—in your own words and using your own photos?
- And have this special memory be a part of his/her yearbook?

Crystal Michele Lupinelli

Crystal, you are our bright little one, with brightness as big as the sun. You have illuminated our lives with your beauty, intelligence, your kindhearted nature, quick sense of humor and your quick little feet. You have a true passion for life, true love for literature and music, as well as a love for laughter and love for the game, which are all beautiful and a joy to see. You are a warm, caring, humble, easygoing and soulful individual yet have the courage and spicy temper should the occasion arise. We commend you for all your determination, hard work and commitment to us and your education, knowing full well that you deserve all the credit for your accomplishments and in our eyes you are already a success. One of your soccer coaches once told me that although you were “little” in size, you played “big” or as though you were “big” and that you never backed down from a challenge. So our little sweetheart, dream big, live big and always play big! We all love you so much and all so proud of you!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Dylan and Christian
